(Amendments) Announcement Relating to Amendments to “Announcement Relating to Commencement of Tender Offer for Shares in DESCENTE LTD. (Code No.8114)” and “Public Notice of Commencement of Tender Offer” in Connection with the Filing of the Amendment to the Tender Offer Notification Statement

As announced in the press release titled “Announcement Relating to Commencement of Tender Offer for Shares in DESCENTE LTD. (Code No.8114)” dated January 31, 2019, BS Investment Corporation (“BS Investment” or the “Tender Offeror”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of ITOCHU Corporation (the “Company”, and the Company and BS Investment are collectively referred to as “ITOCHU, Etc.”), has been in the process of implementing a tender offer for the common shares of DESCENTE LTD. (which is listed on the First Section of the Tokyo Stock Exchange Inc., Code No. 8114; “DESCENTE” or the “Target Company”) (the “Tender Offer”).

After the commencement of the Tender Offer, the Company received a request from DESCENTE to hold discussions regarding DESCENTE’s management structure, etc. after the completion of the Tender Offer, and the Company accepted the request to give respect to DESCENTE’s intention.

One of the important roles of the management of a stock company is supposed to be to win the confidence of shareholders and make efforts to enhance the company’s corporate value, and if serious management issues are pointed out by the shareholders, management is required to address such issues sincerely. Until the Tender Offer, the Company repeatedly asked the current management of DESCENTE to face its shareholders and improve its management; however, DESCENTE is intensifying its attitude of making light of its dialogues with shareholders, including the Company, which is the largest shareholder of DESCENTE.

Under such circumstances, the Company has concluded that, under the management structure, etc. after the completion of the Tender Offer, which was proposed by DESCENTE, it would be difficult to realize the growth strategy, and measures for implementation, which aim to achieve the sustainable enhancement of DESCENTE’s corporate value, and to restructure the existing corporate governance system to make it sound.

Moreover, while DESCENTE’s current management repeatedly made statements in interviews, etc. with the news media, which went beyond the contents disclosed in the Target Company’s position statement dated February 7, 2019 that was filed by DESCENTE (the “Position Statement”), or which were partly inconsistent with the facts, during the period of discussions that took place after the commencement of the Tender Offer, DESCENTE has not made appropriate disclosures. The Company believes that such conduct may have material adverse effects on the making of appropriate investment decisions by the investors.

Based on the above, the Company decided to end its discussions with DESCENTE during the Tender Offer period, and decided to reopen dialogues with DESCENTE's management after the completion of the Tender Offer, in accordance with the Company's original plan at the commencement of the Tender Offer. The Company hopes that DESCENTE's current management will build an appropriate relationship with the shareholders, and show its sincere attitude towards all stakeholders as a result of the implementation of the Tender Offer.

Accordingly, BS Investment has filed the Amendment to the Tender Offer Notification Statement with the Director-General of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau under Article 27-8, Paragraph 2 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (Act No.25 of 1948, as amended; the "Act") on February 28, 2019, and hereby announces that it is amending the press release titled "Announcement Relating to Commencement of Tender Offer for Shares in DESCENTE LTD. (Code No.8114)" dated January 31, 2019, and the "Public Notice of Commencement of Tender Offer" of the same date (the portions that have been amended are underlined).

This amendment does not fall under a change in the Terms of Purchase, etc. that is defined in Article 27-3, Paragraph 2, Item 1 of the Act.

ITOCHU, Etc. considers that the current management of DESCENTE should now substantially consider and specifically propose a growth strategy and measures for implementation, which are acceptable to all of its stakeholders, such as its shareholders, including the Company, which is the largest shareholder of DESCENTE, investors, its former and current employees, and its business partners, etc., and faithfully implement such growth strategy and measures. However, ITOCHU, Etc. believes that it is extremely difficult for DESCENTE's current management to implement such growth strategy and measures, given the management's series of attitudes of making light of its dialogues with shareholders, and the management's ongoing repetition of statements that are partly inconsistent with the facts and careless actions, vis-à-vis the news media. ITOCHU, Etc. will steadily proceed with the Tender Offer, to aim for the sustainable enhancement of the corporate value of DESCENTE, and to ensure that the growth strategy and measures for implementation, which benefit the interests of the stakeholders of DESCENTE, are implemented after the completion of the Tender Offer.

I. Amendment to "Announcement Relating to Commencement of Tender Offer for Shares in DESCENTE LTD. (Code No.8114)" dated January 31, 2019

2. Purpose of the Purchase, Etc.
(Before amendment)

(3) Management Policy after the Completion of the Tender Offer

In order to reform the management structure and restructure the existing corporate governance system to make it sound for further enhancement of the Target Company's corporate value, and construct a relationship whereby ITOCHU, Etc. and the Target Company can constructively discuss the Target Company's growth strategy and measures, ITOCHU, Etc., believes that it is necessary to promote competent, next-generation personnel from the Target Company and substantially reform the structure of the Board of Directors, including Outside Directors.

With respect to the Target Company's management structure, ITOCHU, Etc., considers it desirable to establish a management structure that is balanced from a functional perspective in order to promote rapid decision-making as well as to fulfill checking and supervisory functions through decreasing the number of Directors from ten, the current number, to approximately six, as the core of its policy, and to newly appoint two persons as Directors from among the personnel of the Target Company, dispatch two persons from ITOCHU as Directors (one of whom is to be a full-time Director) and appoint as Outside Directors two persons who are independent from both ITOCHU, Etc., and the Target Company. ITOCHU, Etc., plans to have discussions with the Target Company after the completion of the Tender Offer, and if the discussions with the Target Company do not result in any agreement, it is possible for ITOCHU, Etc., to submit to the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders a proposal with respect to the appointment of Directors and Corporate Auditors of the Target Company, etc. (the “Shareholder Proposal”), taking into consideration the results of the Tender Offer. The detailed selection of the personnel is planned to be determined after the Tender Offer, taking into consideration the results of the discussions with the Target Company.

As of today, the outline of the measures which ITOCHU, Etc., believes that it can realize under a new cooperative relationship with the management of the Target Company is as follows. As stated above, since ITOCHU, Etc., did not have any prior discussion with the Target Company with respect to the Tender Offer, and the information which is shared with the Director who has been dispatched from ITOCHU is limited to the minimum, the information on the Target Company which ITOCHU, Etc., can acquire at this point of time is limited. Therefore, ITOCHU, Etc., plan to implement the measures after the reform of the management structure and upon sufficient discussions with the management of the Target Company with respect to the details of such measures, including time and method thereof.

(3) Management Policy after the Completion of the Tender Offer

In order to reform the management structure and restructure the existing corporate governance system to make it sound for further enhancement of the Target Company’s corporate value, and construct a relationship whereby ITOCHU, Etc, and the Target Company can constructively discuss the Target Company’s growth strategy and measures, ITOCHU, Etc., believes that it is necessary to promote competent, next-generation personnel from the Target Company and substantially reform the structure of the Board of Directors, including Outside Directors.

With respect to the Target Company’s management structure, as of the commencement of the Tender Offer, ITOCHU, Etc., considered it desirable to establish a management structure that is balanced from a functional perspective in order to promote rapid decision-making as well as to fulfill checking and supervisory functions through decreasing the number of Directors from ten, the current number, to approximately six, as the core of its policy, and to newly appoint two persons as Directors from among the personnel of the Target Company, dispatch two persons from ITOCHU as Directors (one of whom is to be a full-time Director) and appoint as Outside Directors two persons who are independent from both ITOCHU, Etc., and the Target Company. ITOCHU, Etc., plans to have discussions with the Target Company after the completion of the Tender Offer, and considers that if the discussions with the Target Company do not result in any agreement, it is possible for ITOCHU, Etc., to submit to the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders a proposal with respect to the appointment of Directors and Corporate Auditors of the Target Company, etc. (the “Shareholder Proposal”), taking into consideration the results of the Tender Offer. The detailed selection of the personnel was planned to be determined after the Tender Offer, taking into consideration the results of the discussions with the Target Company.

On the other hand, on February 7, 2019, the Target Company filed a position statement (the “Position Statement”) to express its opinion opposing the Tender Offer, while it provided the news media with a statement showing that it desired to have constructive discussions with ITOCHU, Etc. ITOCHU, Etc., believed that it would be appropriate to have discussions with the Target Company after the Tender Offer; however, as ITOCHU received a formal request from the Target Company to have discussions through a third party who is connected with both the Target Company and ITOCHU, ITOCHU, Etc. considered that it was not appropriate to refuse such a request, and therefore decided to accept the request to have a preliminary discussion to confirm the Target Company’s position. ITOCHU commenced a discussion with Mr. Ishimoto, the President and Representative Director of the Target Company, from February 11, 2019. As a substantial change to the Target Company’s directors was a prerequisite for Mr. Ishimoto’s proposal, ITOCHU considered that there was a possibility to construct a relationship whereby ITOCHU, Etc. and the Target Company can have constructive discussions. Therefore, ITOCHU once decided to start holding specific discussions with the Target Company from the same date, with respect to the Target Company’s management issues, the Target Company’s management structure after the completion of the Tender Offer and other matters. In these discussions, in good faith, ITOCHU tried to have constructive discussions with the Target Company for the purpose of the sustainable enhancement of the Target Company’s corporate value, such as by considering the Target Company’s management structure after the completion of the Tender Offer in a way that would show respect for the Target Company’s intention. Such discussions were repetitively held on February 11, 13, 15 and 20, 2019. ITOCHU expected to find a certain course of action that could be agreed upon with the Target Company with respect to the management structure after the completion of the Tender Offer and other matters.

However, in the period during which such discussions were held, it was continuously reported by the news media that the Target Company’s current management, including Mr. Ishimoto, criticized the actions of ITOCHU, Etc., and repeatedly stated that they opposed the Tender Offer, in interviews, etc. with the news media. Moreover, the contents of such statements went beyond the contents disclosed in the Position Statement, or were partly inconsistent with the facts. Accordingly, ITOCHU continued to be in a situation under which ITOCHU had no choice but to doubt the integrity of the attitude of negotiation of the Target Company’s current management and the credibility of Mr. Ishimoto’s statements in these discussions. Furthermore, in the discussions stated above, the Target Company did not present any specific course of action, and discussions were limited to superficial ones regarding the number of Outside Directors. Therefore, ITOCHU had no choice but to conclude that it would be difficult to achieve a consensus with the Target Company during the Tender Offer Period, in relation to a specific course of action with respect to the Target Company’s management structure after the completion of the Tender Offer, and for the Target Company to decide on and disclose a management structure in accordance with such course of action.

Taking into account the above circumstances, ITOCHU decided to end the discussions stated above on February 22, 2019 and in accordance with its original plan at the commencement of the Tender Offer, ITOCHU, Etc. will reopen dialogues with the Target Company’s management after the completion of the Tender Offer, in order to aim for a sustainable enhancement of the Target Company’s corporate value.

However, the impression that ITOCHU, Etc. has received from the Target Company’s response during the discussions stated above is that serious problems in the Target Company’s current management structure are beginning to be revealed. Therefore, if ITOCHU, Etc. determines that the Target Company’s corporate value is likely to decrease during the period until the Ordinary General Meeting of Shareholders, there is a possibility that ITOCHU, Etc. may consider requesting the Target Company to convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders in accordance with the Companies Act, after comprehensively considering the results of the Tender Offer and other matters.

As of today, the outline of the measures which ITOCHU, Etc., believes that it can realize under a new cooperative relationship with the management of the Target Company is as follows. As stated above, since ITOCHU, Etc., did not have any prior discussion with the Target Company with respect to the Tender Offer, and the information which is shared with the Director who has been dispatched from ITOCHU is limited to the minimum, the information on the Target Company which ITOCHU, Etc., can acquire at this point of time is limited. Therefore, ITOCHU, Etc., plan to implement the measures after the reform of the management structure and upon sufficient discussions with the management of the Target Company with respect to the details of such measures, including time and method thereof.
